Libertarian Candidate for U.S. Senate meets with Sugarhouse voters

Sugarhouse, UT, January 22, 2018: Craig Bowden, a Libertarian candidate seeking office for the U.S. Senate from North Ogden, to address voters in a “dinner meet & greet” with New York Gubernatorial candidate, Larry Sharpe at Wasatch Brewery in Sugarhouse. The event is to take place from 7:00 pm until 10:00 pm.

During the event, Craig Bowden will talk about his platform on a non-interventionist foreign policy, ending the war on drugs, the need to respect privacy in the wake of the renewed FISA program, and his plans for criminal justice reforms. He will then answer questions from voters in attendance.

Currently, Craig Bowden and Larry Sharpe are two of the highest profile candidates within the Libertarian Party in the 2018 election. Mr. Bowden has raised just under $20,000 for the Senate race, and Larry Sharpe has recently crossed the six-figure mark, having surpassed $100,000 in donations as of his fourth quarter filing. Both candidates have been pushing for more professionalism in third party campaigns and demonstrating that there are viable options outside the two-party system.
